

Arizona Outlaws 356 Club

East Meets West 2023

The Arizona Outlaws are meeting up with our friends of the Zia 356 Club of New Mexico for the second annual East-Meets-West tour, this time for a trip to Southern Arizona that takes place April 13-16. The Whining Swine will be in force.

The Tucson Hotel La Quinta (520) 747-1414 is the destination for Thursday, April 13. Hotel reservations must be made on your own; refer to Block Arizona Outlaws for rooms. A dinner and get together will be at a restaurant within walking distance.

The group from Phoenix will meet at 10:30 am Thursday, April 13, at the Chevron station south of US 60 at the Goldfield exit, milepost 198. The back way through Florence will include lunch at the L&B Mexican restaurant on 695 S. Main Street in Florence. We'll go from there on SR79 towards Tucson.

Options for Thursday afternoon tours include the Pima Air Museum in southeast Tucson and the Desert Sonoran Museum west of Tucson.

On Friday, April 14, the drive will begin about 9:30 am Outlaw Time at the La Quinta Hotel (route maps will be available) and go east up to Mount Lemon. The run will then go south through Sonoita to Tombstone for lunch and a sight-seeing stop.

At about 2 pm, we'll leave for the short trip to Bisbee and the event hotel for Friday and Saturday. The historic Copper Queen Hotel (520) 432-2216 has rooms available under the Arizona Outlaws that are going fast, so make reservations ASAP. A Happy Hour event will take place at the Copper Queen on Friday and dinner on both nights is on your own.

The historic mining town of Bisbee has numerous bars and restaurants. Potential attractions in Bisbee include a copper-mine tour and a Bisbee Jeep tour.

Saturday morning about 9:30 am, Outlaw Time, a drive will go northeast to the Wilcox area for a stop at the Chiricahua National Monument. From there, we will go to the Gadsden Hotel in Douglas for lunch and a tour of the historic hotel. Pancho Villa once rode his horse up the staircase in the lobby.

After the tour, we will return to Bisbee for an informal wind down in the Copper Queen bar before dinner at one of the town's numerous restaurants.

All participants must register for the event. The entry fee is $35, which does not include hotels, food, drink or souvenirs. Here's the registration form:
