Driver's Meeting and drive to Hannagan Meadow Lodge for Lunch (1 hour)

1. Driver's Meeting at 9:30AM with breakfast burritos and assorted morning goodies. Careful, lunch is in one hour.
 - a. Please be fueled and ready to go before the Driver's meeting.

4. (48.6m) Follow AZ-191 through Alpine to Hannagan Meadow Lodge on your right. We will have lunch at the Lodge, order off the menu.

Hannagan Meadow to Morenci (2 hours each way)

1. (67.8m) Exit Hannagan Meadow Lodge to the right and continue onto the Coronado Trail to the Conoco station in Morenci. This leg is what we came for. Please exercise caution on this road as it can be dangerous with sharp turns in the downhill direction. Our drop in elevation will take us from 9377 feet to 4058 feet.
 - a. About 6.5 miles south of Hannagan Meadow Lodge on the right is Blue Vista Lookout. This pull-off offers a great view of the Mogollon Rim, Southeastern Arizona, and western New Mexico.
 - b. About two miles further south is the Arrow Tree. It's on the inside of a right hand curve a short way below the Blue Vista Lookout. Bow hunters don't pass through without taking a shot at it.
2. (0.1m) In Morenci, after passing through the mine area, stay to the right on AZ191 to where it "T"s and turn left onto Burro Avenue (which is still AZ191). Follow Burro Avenue 0.2 miles and turn right onto Mountain Avenue directly into the Conoco gas station.
3. After a brief rest break and refueling at the Conoco station in Morenci we will turn around and drive the Coronado Trail back up the hill.
4. (67.9m) Head back north to Hannagan Meadow Lodge for regrouping and a brief rest break.

Hannagan Meadow to Alpine

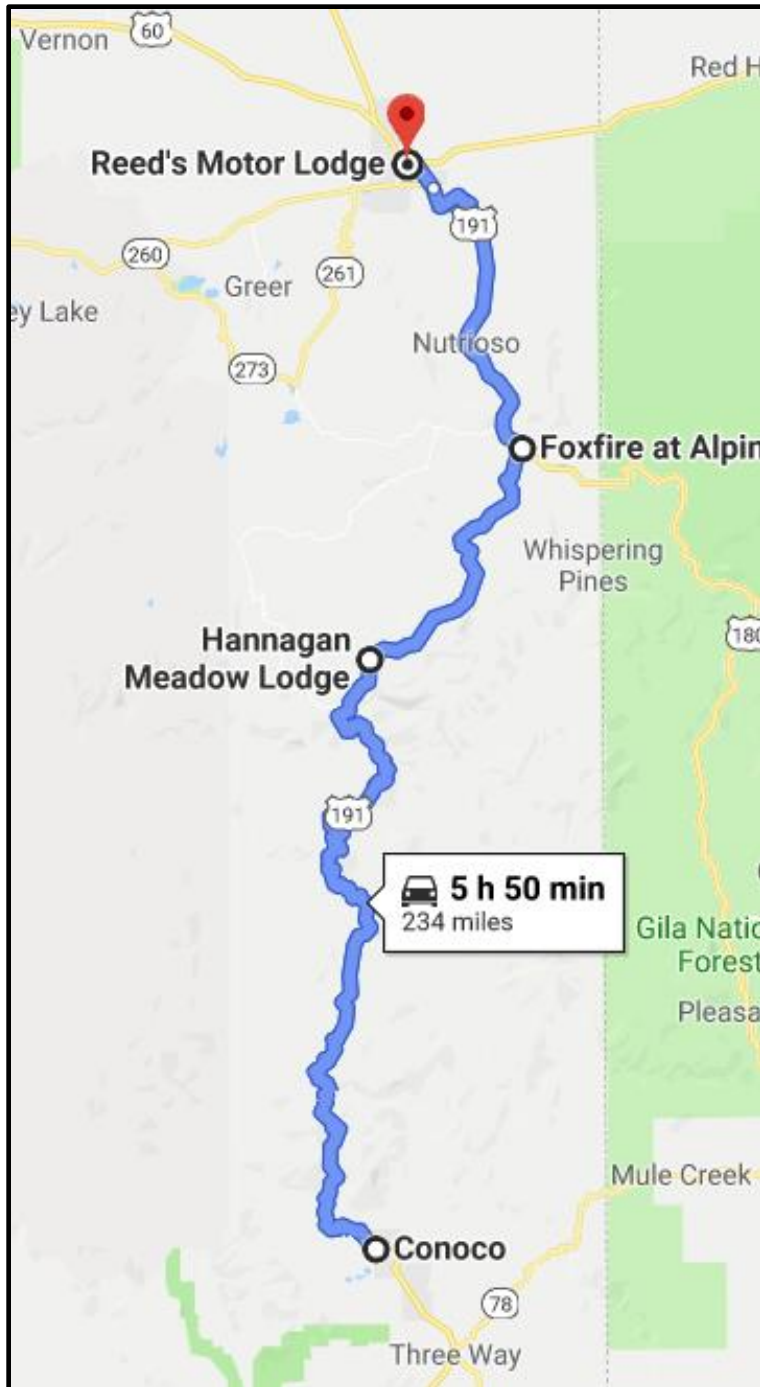

Our estimated arrival time in Alpine is 4:30 to 5:00pm. So depending on our arrival time we may be enjoying an early dinner at Foxfire At Alpine. To return to the hotel in Springerville and then go back to Alpine would add an extra hour of driving. If it is too early for dinner we can just linger in Alpine and enjoy some of the local culture.

1. (22.5m) After a brief stop at Hannagan Meadow we head back to Alpine for an early dinner in Alpine.

2. (0.2m) In Alpine turn right onto AZ-180. Our early dinner stop will be at the Foxfire At Alpine restaurant, 42661 US-180, Alpine, AZ 85920.

Alpine to Springerville

1. (0.2m) After dinner, exit the restaurant to the right onto AZ-180
2. (24.1m) Turn right onto AZ-191 to return to Reeds Motor Lodge in Springerville.
3. (0.6m) Turn left onto East Main Street, the lodge is on your left
